

For Release: Immediate, March 24, 2015
Contact: Andrew Rush (518) 618-1513

Millennium Pipeline Names Ron Happach its Chief Operating Officer

Pearl River, N.Y. -- The Millennium Pipeline Company today announced that Ron Happach has been named Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Happach brings more than 30 years of natural gas industry experience to the position, including having served as the Senior Vice President of Inergy Midstream and Vice President of Commercial Operations at Inergy LP.

"We are extremely pleased to be able to add a professional like Ron Happach to our team," said Millennium President Joseph Shields. "Ron holds one of the best reputations in the industry and there is no doubt that his talent and experience will be a great asset as we work to grow Millennium's customer base and take this company to the next level in value."

As Chief Operating Officer, Happach will be responsible for all commercial operations, marketing, engineering and construction of the Millennium Pipeline. He will report directly to President Joseph Shields.

While at Inergy, Ron was responsible for the commercial operations and marketing of all of Inergy's natural gas storage and pipeline transportation facilities. Prior to joining Inergy in 2005, Ron held various positions of increasing responsibility with Kinder Morgan and Natural Gas Pipeline Company.

Happach holds a Mechanical Engineering degree from Bradley University in Peoria, Illinois. He began his new position on March 23, 2015. More information on Millennium is available on the company's web site at www.millenniumpipeline.com.

####

Millennium Pipeline is a New York-based interstate natural gas pipeline serving the Northeast. Millennium's pipeline runs from Corning, New York to Rockland County, New York. Millennium is jointly owned by affiliates of NiSource Inc., National Grid and DTE Energy.

 This release was adjusted on June 24, 2015*